CLIENT ASSESSMENT

Amy Caruso, CMPE

Practice Administrator
Jamestown Radiologists, PC
Jamestown, NY

During the course of over 30 years, Merritt Hawkins has developed an approach to physician recruiting that is based on both comprehensive, national resources and the continued communication and commitment of our Recruiting Consultants. In the following client assessment, Amy Caruso, Practice Administrator of Jamestown Radiologists, discusses the ongoing success Merritt Hawkins has achieved for her practice:

“It has been a pleasure working with Merritt Hawkins over the last three years. The Company is professional and effective in their recruiting efforts.”

“We had challenges recruiting for radiologists due our rural location. Responses from typical job posting websites were very low.”

“Our Merritt Hawkins recruiter was fantastic addressing our unique needs by helping us to market our practice in a desirable way which generated interest and resulted in multiple successful placements.”

“He took the time to understand our practice and community and screened the candidates very well, so we found the right radiologists for us.”

“I would highly recommend Merritt Hawkins and would use them again without hesitation!”
