Dallas, Texas - Merritt Hawkins, the nation's leading physician search firm and a company of AMN Healthcare (NYSE: AMN) has been selected as an Endorsed Business Partner by the Michigan Health & Hospital Association (MHA).

"We are proud to be selected as the endorsed vendor for permanent physician search and consulting by Michigan's leading hospital organization," said Ben Jones, regional vice president of Merritt Hawkins. "We look forward to expanding our recruiting partnerships with hospitals throughout the Great Lakes State."

Earlier this year, the MHA launched its new Endorsed Business Partner (EBP) program as a way to identify and promote industry-leading firms that can meet the most pressing business needs of its member hospitals and health systems. EBP is designed to connect MHA members with the highest quality partners, according to MHA CEO Brian Peters.

"After a lengthy and thorough discovery and review process, the MHA is pleased to endorse Merritt Hawkins as a business partner." Peters said. "They will invest the time and energy to build positive client relationships and deliver the staffing services our members need."

Now celebrating its 31st year of service, Merritt Hawkins provides a comprehensive range of search services, recruiting physicians, physician leaders, nurse practitioners, physician assistants and other advanced clinicians for clients nationwide.
